

New York Library Association and Westchester Community College to present Library Assistant/Technician Training Program

Valhalla, NY The New York Library Association (NYLA) is pleased to announce the Library Assistant/Technician Training program at Westchester Community College, September 10-16, 2012.

This certificate, non-credit program is sponsored by NYLA in cooperation with Westchester Community College. It is open to individuals already working or newly hired in libraries, or people interested in working in libraries. To receive a certificate from the college, the individual must complete the entire 18 hour program.

The cost for the program is $250. There are no materials required to be collected in advance of the first program. All required materials will be distributed at each session. To register, call the Westchester Community College Division of Continuing Education at 914-606-6830 and press 1 or visit www.sunywccc.edu/ce.

For more information, please visit Library Assistant/Technician Training Program page on www.nyla.org.

About NYLA:

The New York Library Association (NYLA) is the voice of the library community in New York. NYLA is the oldest state library association in the country and represents school, college, special and public libraries, library staff, trustees, and students from around the state.

NYLA is the only statewide organization dedicated to advocating on behalf of all libraries and library staff in Albany and serves as the spokesperson on library matters to the media and public policymakers.

For more information contact:

Jeremy Johannesen
Executive Director
New York Library Association
events@nyla.org
518-432-6952
www.nyla.org